USF Board of Trustees Strategic Initiatives Committe Strategic Plan Input Meeting January 19, 2021 Time:4:30-6:00 PM Teams Meeting

Opening Remarks

Chair Carrere opened the meeting by providing background information and the steps taken to date. He explained a high proficient visory task force had been created and has already begun working hard. He noted it will extremely important for the task to reflect on the overarching environment of higher education and incorporate into the final plan.

wdo.

President Currall began by reinforcing Claubegin the process. He explained the purpose the Committee meetings. The intention is to be an obring an expertisend knowledge the task force of President Currall explained he was thrilled to ha Thomas vice chair the task force. He noted he s

President Currall highlighted the task force charged task is diverse in terms of campus, academic dishis confidence in the task force leadership.

President Currall reviewed several of the materia but not limited to, the BOG Strategic Plan, the P

III. Initial Task Force workplan and time

Vice President and Chief of Staff Brian Ten Eycl highlighting a process flowchart. He explained the before and provides various inputs, dates, and veristing materials to aide in their process and be VP Ten Eyck went on to discuss various compoassignments, initial community survey and community Staff Paige Beles Geers prouded highlevel overvidates.

IV. Perspectives on the plan outline and core elements

Chair Stanish highlighted various topics the task force will focus on including institutionalizing a framework for diversity, inclusion, antacism, and equity and ways to articulate strategies to knit together USF's campuses while maintaining unique auter and strengths of each. Furthermore, he explained the various mechanisms of engagement with external stakeholders.

There was discussion among the trustees regarding input from state, national and international stakeholders. President Currabted we will continue to seek input and engage the trustees throughout the process and look forward to their guidance and ideas.