

RSA Scholar Quotes

(from Fall 2023 survey)

- It helped give me a greater passion for the field of rehabilitation counseling and opened my eyes to all of the services that can be provided in this area. e financial support for my coursework was very beneficial. It also exposed me to credentials such as the CRC and CVE which I probably otherwise would not have."
- 46 It has allowed me to excel in the field I love. I was able to use my scholarship to complete school and acquire all my needs to be successful. It has established a network of students that can maintain communication for future networking."
- 66 It has increased my knowledge for a broad range of disabilities and expanded my confidence for advocating for people with disabilities."
- 66 Introduced me to the world of voc rehab and voc evals which has been meaningful work."
- e RSA program helped me prepare and gain the knowledge and experience to secure a full-time position as a vocational rehabilitation counselor. It also helped me network and plan for events as well as coordinate with other scholars to pass the CRC first try."
- 66 I felt equipped entering into this field and felt a camaraderie amongst my colleagues as fellow RSA scholars."
- 66 Being a scholar has opened several opportunities from me and allowed me to learn about and area of counseling that is not really discussed, vocational rehabilitation."
- 66 Being an RSA scholar helped me experience the di erence paths I could take with my degree."

- 66 Being an RSA scholar helped me to learn evidence-based practices and strategies to best serve people with disabilities."
- 66 RSA has helped me to advance in my career. e opportunity to attend conferences and have additional assistance in school has been invaluable."
- Feing a RSA Scholar has provided me access to invaluable resources, mentorship, and specialized training in the field of rehabilitation services. e networking opportunities facilitated by the RSA Scholar community have allowed me to connect with experienced professionals and expand my professional circle in the rehabilitation services sector. e funding from the Scholarship has been instrumental in supporting my career goals and enables me to contribute more meaningfully to the disability community."
- 66 Being an RSA scholar helped me connect, intern, and work with counselors that specialize in working with individuals with disabilities. e knowledge and